

New Years Resolutions. DEC 1 2007

10min EXERCISE

3.35

Never have I committed for a minute for the next 12 months. Never in my consciousness have I thought this to be a task of worth. Rather, a complete waste of time and effort. Goals and aspirations and budgeting and planning and forward thinking are positive acts. I like ~~to~~ them. Malleable, not firm or on a list. Not a line by line stepped list of commands but forward in nature. Not that any one can really foresee the future. I remember a former Premier of NSW John Falvey saying publicly, he "lacked vision" and didn't believe in looking into the future.
This is the kind of thinking that can leave people step off kerbs and land in roadside drains. No wonder he ended up as the dope in charge of the Olympic Drug Commission. My ideas never that looking back is great if we can learn by it, but we must cast an eye forward. Nothing imaginative helps while resolutions are fiction and fantasies.

a former Premier of NSW John Falgun saying publicly, he "traced vision" and
didn't believe in looking into the future.
