

There's Always Tomorrow

In any thing in life.....there is always that hidden outcome of things. If we plan to do something, we are not sure if we could finish right away but there is that tomorrow that is there and could give us hope in everything that we do.

If we are doing some assignments in school and it has to be submitted soon.....we tend to do as much as we could and tend to finish it.....but if we don't we still have that hope that things will have a good outcome.

If we care for a sick relative or friend.....we always tell him or her that she'll be better tomorrow. AS if the tomorrow is a Ray of hope to so many things.

If a child does not do well in school....we always hope that he or she will better tomorrow.

So tomorrow is for hope for a better outcome, a better health, a better life and better conditions.

There is really always tomorrow in everything.

(I came across a song in the past and the words are truly about hope and tomorrow.)

THERE'S ALWAYS TOMORROW

There's always tomorrow

For dreams to come true.

Believe in your dreams

Come what may,,

There's always tomorrow

With as much to do

And so little time in a day

We all pretend

The rainbow has an end

And you'll be there my friend someday

There's always tomorrow

For dreams to come true

Tomorrow is not Far away.
